Online Summer Learning Opportunities

Learn something new and earn credit! Participate in an online summer learning opportunity. Courses are self-paced and can be completed using school-issued devices.

Limited space available. Registration is on a first-come, first-served basis and must be received by June 1, 2018.

Creative Writing/Journalism

Maloney High School

Express yourself through print and digital media. Emphasis will be placed upon interviewing techniques, organization of facts, and writing feature articles. Write short stories, poetry and one act plays.

Human Behavior

Platt High School

This course will provide students with an opportunity to learn more about themselves and their behavior. Gain insight into human motivation and improve your ability to relate to others.

SUMMER LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES

Guidelines For Success

- Students should be able to access and complete online course materials throughout the summer.
- Students must successfully complete all online course work and submit to their instructor by August 31, 2018.
- Credit awarded and associated GPA points follow Board Policies set out in the Program of Studies for academic courses.
- Partial credit will not be awarded for incomplete coursework.
- Teachers will hold a Spring and Fall in-person meeting with students, as well as two optional summer “office hours” sessions.
