Library Reorganization & On-line Catalog

Welcome to another year in the Platt library! It has been an exciting summer as a major reorganization of the library has taken place. We now have a new 28 station computer lab where our reference books used to be, and that has necessitated a shift in the arrangement of books throughout the library.

Please stop in to see our new look!

Our new on-line catalog is accessible from the Platt home page under either "Library On-Line Catalog", or, by scrolling down, the "Library/Media Center" link.

Find out what we have in the collection by author, title, or subject.

Research Databases

We have subscribed to two research databases this year. These can be accessed by anyone from school or home. The web addresses are:

go.grolier.com (an excellent set of four encyclopedias), and lrsdatabase.com (an excellent compilation of pamphlets and current events documents for school research).
